Terms of Admission,

Expenses, &c.

THE Anniversary is on the first Wednesday in September.

There are two vacations annually; the first, of seven weeks' duration, from the Anniversary; the second, of five weeks, immediately preceding the last Wednesday in May.

The regular time for admission is the first week in the Academical year, which commences seven weeks from the Anniversary.

The Institution is equally open to Protestants of every denomination.

Every applicant for the privileges of the Seminary must, previously to his admission, produce to the Faculty satisfactory testimonials from persons of information and respectability and reputed piety, that he possesses good natural and acquired talents; that he has been regularly educated at some respectable College or University, or has otherwise made literary acquisitions, which, as preparatory to theological studies, are substantially equivalent to a liberal education; and that he sustains a fair moral character, is of a prudent and discreet deportment, and is hopefully possessed of personal piety. He must also exhibit to the Faculty proper testimonials of his being in full communion with some Church of Christ; or, if not a church-member, he must subscribe a declaration of his belief in the Christian religion.

Candidates who apply for admission should be careful to bring with them the testimonials above required, and also the proper certificates of their indigence, if they expect to ask charitable assistance.

Every candidate, thus introduced, is to be examined by the Faculty with reference to his personal piety, his object in pursuing theological studies, and his knowledge of the learned languages. In cases where the candidate has not been regularly educated at a College, he must also be prepared to sustain an examination in Mathematics, Logic, Rhetoric, Natural Philosophy, Astronomy and Intellectual Philosophy.

In every case of application for admission, after the regular time, the candidate, besides the usual requisitions at the opening of the year, will be examined on all the studies gone over by the class.

No student can apply for charitable assistance the first year, who is not examined and approved within the first five weeks of the year.

It is of great importance, that all who propose to enter the Junior Class, should be present at the opening of the term in October, in order that the class may begin together the study of Hebrew.

The students board in private families, and pay from $1,25 to $2,00 a week for their board. Good board may be had in clubs, or by a number of students associating together, at a price varying from $1,25 to $1,62 per week. To those whose pecuniary necessities require it, about half the average price of board has been allowed from the charity-funds of the Seminary. Whether the allowance shall be larger or smaller hereafter, will depend chiefly on the number who may apply for aid.

The rooms in the public buildings are supplied with beds, bedding, and other furniture, except stoves, which the occupants provide for themselves, if they prefer them to an open fire-place.

No charge is made for instruction; and none to regular students for rooms or furniture in the public buildings, except $3 a year for the care of the rooms and beds, and for keeping the buildings and furniture in repair. — If a student room alone in Bartlet Hall, he is charged double this sum.

Each student pays $3 a year for the use of the Library, and $5 a year for the care, warming, and lighting of the lecture-rooms and the chapel, for ringing the bell, and for other incidental expenses. — Taxes for Society purposes are regulated by the students and are entirely voluntary.

Resident licentiates and others not belonging to the Seminary, pay forty cents a week for a room in the public buildings, and $3 a year for the use of the Library.

The average expense for fuel, lights, and washing, is about $16 a year.

Summary of expenses for forty weeks.

|--------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| Board, at $1,75 per week, . . . . .                               | 70,00 |
| Library $3, Lecture Rooms, etc. $5, repairs, etc. $3, . . . . . | 11,00 |
| Average expense for fuel, lights and washing, . . . . .            | 16,00 |
|                                                                    | <hr/> |
| Total, . . . . .                                                   | 97,00 |

In case of those who are assisted by the Seminary funds, about $35 will be deducted, leaving a remainder of $62, which will be more than cancelled in the case of those who receive aid from the American Education Society.

The Founders of the Seminary made it a condition of enjoying its privileges, that all its members should go through a three years' course of theological study, unless prevented by some unforeseen and unavoidable necessity; it being their purpose to give a thorough, not a partial education.

The voluntary failure of any student to comply with the above condition, will be regarded as a violation of his own engagement; and if he be placed on any foundation, will subject him to the payment of what he has received as a charity-student.

Resident Licentiates, in addition to those who are elected to the Abbot foundation, may with the leave of the Faculty, have access to the Library, to the instructions of the Officers, and to the other exercises of the Institution. But it is required that candidates for the enjoyment of these privileges, shall have honorably completed a three years' course of professional study at a Theological Seminary, or otherwise have studied theology under good advantages, for at least the same period.

In special cases, however, persons of reputed piety, with promising talents and acquirements, who have not passed through a regular course of theological study, and have the ministry or missionary service in view, may be permitted by the Faculty, with the approbation of the Committee of Exigences, to enjoy the above named privileges of Resident Licentiates.
